Description

Crowley Millar is a well established and highly regarded law firm based in Dublin's IFSC, serving a wide range of national and international clients in Ireland, the UK and beyond through our membership of the Mackrell International group of law firms, who are a network of independent law firms in more than 120 offices on five continents.

With over 25 years of experience providing legal services to clients, our firm's reputation is based on proven ability, expertise and a practical dynamic approach. We are always mindful of the needs of our clients and pride ourselves on providing an efficient, effective and personal service.

Through our links, we have built up business relationships in China. Crowley Millar employs Chinese Lawyers who are qualified to practice law in both Ireland and China and specialise in providing services, not just to the Chinese community in Ireland but also internationally to consortiums and individuals based in China (and other countries) but especially those interested in doing business in Ireland. This team is led by our Partner, John Carroll.
